2025 Distinguished Service Award Nomination Form

Invitation for Nominations for the 2025 Award: The National Capital Gift Planning Council (NCGPC) invites you to nominate one or more individuals for the Distinguished Service Award (DSA).

Criteria for Selection: The Distinguished Service Award honors a planned giving, development, or allied professional, or a volunteer leader in gift planning, with a distinguished record of service in gift planning. The award recipient will exemplify:

- Demonstrated quality leadership in gift planning;
- Longevity in gift planning (a minimum of 5 years);
- Specific achievements in promoting and securing planned gifts;
- Service to the gift planning profession through participation in CGP (formerly PPP) and/or NCGPC; and,
- Adherence to the Model Standards of Practice for the Charitable Gift Planner.

Award Presentation: The 2025 Distinguished Service Award will be presented at the Planned Giving Day Conference on June 17, 2025 at American University Washington College of Law.

Nominations: Please complete the attached form for each nominee (one form per nominee), filling in all information as indicated. You may attach supporting materials, such as a resume or letters of support. Be sure to include your name, email address, and daytime phone number. If you have any questions, please email us at ncgpc@ascent-management.com.

Completed forms and supporting information must be submitted by Monday, April 28, 2025, by email to ncgpc@ascent-management.com

The DSA committee will review all nominations and select the recipient of the award in May 2025.

A list of past DSA winners can be found at ncgpc.org/about/ncgpc-service-award.
